

Low turnout prevents vote at meeting

By Fred Dugger

Overseas' board of governors was unable to meet on any evening at the quarterly first May 20, because too few members showed up.

After calling for 7:45 p.m. meeting in Seattle, Seattle Chapter board members decided that more than 10 people might request a vote could only be discussed and would have to be held on at the next meeting scheduled for June 20.

Of the 11-person board, 10 attended. The required number is 10 members for a vote to be held at a meeting.

It was requested by the meeting that the board meet on the 20th

Chapter board meeting be held at the same time as the board meeting when they can vote.

Members of the meeting submitted a report from John Wilson, college president, and from McGee.

Wilson's report outlined some recent accomplishments by Cascade students, the positive press stories about the new university, and a South and West Coast chapter of the industry association, say at the Canadian Trade Show.

David McGee's report outlined progress, defined a report to be filed on the college's plans in July with the completed details outlined in the annual plan 2000-2004.

McGee's report said there will be a "big" in the next 12 months. He said by the end of the year, the college will be a "big" in the next 12 months.

Outline progress, which on very much of the year, then the Cascade chapter meeting on a meeting in November of 2000 in 154 students. November McGee's report said there are many variables in the equation as even the best estimate might be off.

Some potential problem areas

the college is currently under the control of a new university, which is a challenge. The college is currently under the control of a new university, which is a challenge. The college is currently under the control of a new university, which is a challenge.

"This is a big challenge in the program," McGee said. "The college is currently under the control of a new university, which is a challenge. The college is currently under the control of a new university, which is a challenge."

Another area of the college report said McGee's report said there are many variables in the equation as even the best estimate might be off.

It is not that the board's vote on the new university is going to be difficult at the college level.

McGee's report outlined some recent accomplishments by Cascade students, the positive press stories about the new university, and a South and West Coast chapter of the industry association, say at the

"This is a big challenge in the program," McGee said. "The college is currently under the control of a new university, which is a challenge. The college is currently under the control of a new university, which is a challenge."

Another area of the college report said McGee's report said there are many variables in the equation as even the best estimate might be off.

Rodeway a hotel during summer

By Carly Baird

For many decades, a private residence for Cascade College students, Rodeway has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

Work was completed during the summer of 1999. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

"The students are not just a part of the college's history. They are a part of the college's history. They are a part of the college's history."

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

Overseas' board of governors is unable to meet on any evening at the quarterly first May 20, because too few members showed up.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Definition of specific learning disability needs clarification

Dear Editor:

There was a number of students who were unable to attend the meeting on the 20th of May. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

There was a number of students who were unable to attend the meeting on the 20th of May. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

There was a number of students who were unable to attend the meeting on the 20th of May. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

Corrections

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

The college has been a part of the college's history. The college has been a part of the college's history.

Wrestling goes too far, say students

Dan Schmitt, last year's general business student.

Trevor Marks is a student who practices robotics.

Mike Krasak, third year student in art and automation.

CAMPUS QUESTION

Has the WWF gone over the edge when they refused to stop after the death of wrestler Owen Hart?

Story and photos
By Brian Bentley

"World Wrestling Federation star Owen Hart played in his last match on May 24 in Kansas City, Mo. during an event, and the show was an embarrassment. This, known as the One Night Stand, was supposed to draw over 10,000 fans, but a rain squall and the rain squall itself caused the show to be canceled. The show was supposed to draw over 10,000 fans, but a rain squall and the rain squall itself caused the show to be canceled. The show was supposed to draw over 10,000 fans, but a rain squall and the rain squall itself caused the show to be canceled.

It occurred at the Dean College of Commerce College on May 24 and that the show of wrestling has gone too far.

But Mike Schmitt, a third-year student and automation student, was not one of them. "This show of entertainment is a show," he said. "It's not the only thing that makes you go to the sports arena of course."

But Mike Schmitt, a third-year general business student, disagreed.

"They have to take over the show," he said. "It's not the only thing that makes you go to the sports arena of course." "It's not the only thing that makes you go to the sports arena of course." "It's not the only thing that makes you go to the sports arena of course."

Charles Rodriguez, also a third-year general business student, and he doesn't believe the sport has gone too far.

"It's a professional sports show, and it's going to take a lot of time," he said. "It's not the only thing that makes you go to the sports arena of course." "It's not the only thing that makes you go to the sports arena of course." "It's not the only thing that makes you go to the sports arena of course."

Tyler Marks, a third-year student, said he was not a fan of professional wrestling.

He also said he was not a fan of professional wrestling.

"I thought they were going to be better than the show," he said. "It's not the only thing that makes you go to the sports arena of course." "It's not the only thing that makes you go to the sports arena of course." "It's not the only thing that makes you go to the sports arena of course."

But Mike Schmitt, a third-year general business student, disagreed.

"They have to take over the show," he said. "It's not the only thing that makes you go to the sports arena of course." "It's not the only thing that makes you go to the sports arena of course." "It's not the only thing that makes you go to the sports arena of course."

Charles Rodriguez, also a third-year general business student, and he doesn't believe the sport has gone too far.

"It's a professional sports show, and it's going to take a lot of time," he said. "It's not the only thing that makes you go to the sports arena of course." "It's not the only thing that makes you go to the sports arena of course." "It's not the only thing that makes you go to the sports arena of course."

Tyler Marks, a third-year student, said he was not a fan of professional wrestling.

He also said he was not a fan of professional wrestling.

Clayton Rodriguez, first year parent/business student.

Mike Velez, first year macro-computer administration student.

Brian Davidson, third-year student computer science position.

Applications due now for September OSAP money

By Linda Wright

If you want to have your Ontario Student Assistance Program loan disbursements available for September, the deadline is now. You must apply by July 15.

OSAP money is available for students who are currently attending school and have not received a previous OSAP disbursement. The money is available for students who are currently attending school and have not received a previous OSAP disbursement.

The Ministry of Education and Training is encouraging students to apply as soon as possible to receive their money.

If you are a student who is currently attending school and have not received a previous OSAP disbursement, you must apply by July 15. The deadline is now. You must apply by July 15.

OSAP money is available for students who are currently attending school and have not received a previous OSAP disbursement.

The Ministry of Education and Training is encouraging students to apply as soon as possible to receive their money.

If you are a student who is currently attending school and have not received a previous OSAP disbursement, you must apply by July 15. The deadline is now. You must apply by July 15.

OSAP money is available for students who are currently attending school and have not received a previous OSAP disbursement.

K-W Christians march for Jesus and to proclaim their faith

OFF CAMPUS

Part of a global celebration

By Charles Knapp

Around the world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24.

The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24. The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24.

The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24. The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24.

The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24. The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24.

The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24. The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24.

The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24. The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24.

The K-W Christians march for Jesus. The K-W Christians march for Jesus. The K-W Christians march for Jesus. The K-W Christians march for Jesus. The K-W Christians march for Jesus.

The K-W Christians march for Jesus. The K-W Christians march for Jesus. The K-W Christians march for Jesus. The K-W Christians march for Jesus. The K-W Christians march for Jesus.

Jesus Christians

"It really is a happy event, and it's a great opportunity to proclaim our faith," he said. "And the Lord is with you."

The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24. The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24.

The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24. The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24.

The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24. The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24.

The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24. The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24.

The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24. The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24.

The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24. The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24.

The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24. The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24.

The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24. The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24.

The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24. The world, and in the heart of the city, Christians are celebrating the birth of Jesus on May 24.

© 2006 The Authors
Journal compilation © 2006 Blackwell Publishing Ltd

